ANNOUNCEMENTS

ATLASEDGE ENTERS PORTUGUESE MARKET

 APRIL 2024

Pan-European Edge data centre provider AtlasEdge has entered the Portuguese market by acquiring two sites in Lisbon, set to deliver over 20MW of IT load. This move initiates a strategic plan involving an investment of over €500 million in Portugal. Located in Carnaxide, near Carcavelos—the landing point for several subsea cables—these sites strengthen Lisbon’s role as a key global connectivity hub. The city’s booming tech scene further drives demand for data centre capacity. Notably, AtlasEdge’s facilities in Lisbon will operate on 100% renewable energy and achieve zero water wastage.
